Home Builders Association of Greater Southwest Illinois Announces

The Tim Keleher Outstanding Achievement Recipient for 2010

• Ryan Kempf •

The Home Builders Association of Greater Southwest Illinois is proud to announce the 2010 recipient of the Tim Keleher Award for Outstanding Achievement. The award began as a remembrance of Tim Keleher, a great supporter of the Home Builders Association and his commitment to the building industry in Southwest Illinois. Any student interested in the construction trades at a local high school, university, community college or technical school is eligible for this award. Scholarship applicants are judged on the following criteria: academics, involvement within the building industry, leadership, extra curricular activities, community involvement, awards, honors and achievements.

Ryan Kempf is a senior at Belleville West High School who was recently awarded the Tim Keleher Outstanding Achievement Award for 2010. He has taken many classes related to the building industry including Carpentry, Construction and Advanced Construction. Kempf strives to obtain his start to a career in the building industry with plans to attend Rankin Technical College in the Fall. This bright young man aspires to become a successful electrician. Kempf will be awarded a $500 scholarship toward continuing education in the construction trades and a toolbox outfitted with an assortment of carpentry tools donated by Morgan Wightman, R.P. Lumber, Pro-Build and Wilke Window & Door, Inc.

Congratulations, Ryan Kempf, on behalf of the Home Builders Association of Greater Southwest Illinois!
