Mayor Mark Eckert
of Belleville

Mayor Mark Eckert has served as Mayor since 2004. He served on the City Council for seven years before taking the mayor's office.

Eckert has a passion for the city of Belleville and has worked very hard developing relationships with a number of important entities, such as: Scott Air force Base, local schools, business leaders, and developers.

As a resident, business owner and Mayor he is committed to moving Belleville forward by being a part of the positive improvements and would like to share his vision for the future.
